

Lest We Forget

A special concert commemorating the centenary of the end of the First World War was held in Birmingham and some of our Choir members attended.

Lest We Forget - The National Children's WW1 Remembrance Concert took place on November 3, 2018, at the Genting Arena.

The event is the brainchild of Scary Bones children's author and retired education expert Ron Dawson.